Chris Schonberger Quote

"Hot Ones is proud to be partnering once again with the LA Chargers for a fiery new season of Truth or Dab: Chargers Edition," said First We Feast Creator and General Manager Chris Schonberger. "This season, fans of sports, food, and pop culture can watch the LA Chargers bring the heat – on and off the field. It's always entertaining to get behind the helmet and watch these players connect with their fans online through hot questions and even hotter wings."

Jason Lavine Quote:

"A substantial amount of our content exists at the cross-section of pop culture and sports," said Chargers Vice President of Content & Production Jason Lavine. "Partnering with Complex and First We Feast both solidified and enhanced our position in that space last year, and we couldn't be more excited to run it back again this year with four new episodes of Hot Ones Truth or Dab: Chargers Edition. This collaboration with Sean and the entire Hot Ones team has been everything we hoped for and more, and we're looking forward to football and non-football fans alike getting to experience the lighter side of the NFL while getting to better know our players and the Chargers brand in general."
